

2880 BC

---

The oldest work of philosophy known to us is the "Instructions of Ptahhotep," which apparently goes back to 2880 BC - 2300 years before Confucius, Socrates, and Buddha. Ptah-hotep was Governor of Memphis and Prime Minister to the King, under the Fifth Dynasty.